My dear Rudi:

Warmest congratulations on your book, which is creating a great deal of excitement around Los Angeles. I have ordered it and look forward with the most lively interest to reading it.

My own book, Virtuoso, a candid account of the life of a concert performer is about to be published by David McKay Company. I would be especially grateful if you, as one of my oldest and most admired friends, would consent to look at it and give me some comment with your permission to use it for the jacket of the book. I have taken the liberty of requesting my editor, Dan Catlin, to send you a set of galleys.

I look forward to hearing from you, and send both you and Nina affectionate greetings.

Yours ever,

Henri Temianka
